

FY 2004 HOPWA Formula Allocations

On February 17, 2004, HUD announced that $263.039 million was allocated under the statutory formula to 117 HOPWA formula grantees, including 79 cities for Eligible Metropolitan Statistical Area (EMSA's) and Metropolitan Divisions and 38 States. The grantee for these amounts is the State or, for the EMSA, it is the most populous city within that area, which is the jurisdiction noted below. Further clarification of HUD's implementation of OMB's new standards and definitions for Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSAs) and Metropolitan Divisions can be found in Notice CPD-03-11, Designation of Eligibility for Formula Allocations under the Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA) Program in Fiscal Year 2004, issued on October 14, 2003. Data on how AIDS surveillance information is used for calculating these allocations and the maps of the grant service areas are posted on the HOPWA webpage.

Administrative provisions contained within HUD appropriation acts allow Wake County, NC to administer the grant to the Raleigh Metropolitan Area and an adjustment for the State of New Jersey to receive funding for Salem County, NJ, which is part of the Wilmington DE-NJ metropolitan area. Each allocation is made available under the jurisdiction's consolidated plan. The total program appropriation for Fiscal Year 2003 is $294.751 million, including funds for competitive grants and training, oversight and technical assistance activities.

The eleven new FY 2004 grantees are noted with an (*). These include the states of Iowa and Maryland, as well as the following metropolitan areas: Bridgeport, CT; Augusta, GA; Cambridge, MA; Worcester, MA; Gaithersburg, MD; Warren, MI; Jackson, MS; Camden, NJ; and Poughkeepsie, NY. Five previous grantees will no longer receive funds directly for FY 2004 (as the grant is provided to the largest city in the revised EMSA), but these five continue to have responsibility for managing the FY03 and earlier allocations in their areas. These grantees are: Dover Township, NJ; Jersey City, NJ; Paterson, NJ; Greensboro, NC; and Greenville, SC.
